

What is Sertoma:

Sertoma is a non-profit organization which provides support to various community projects such as aid to the physically and mentally challenged of Hancock County, scholarships to local students interested in entering the field of health care, youth programs for students (Nameless Creek Youth Camp, Scouting, Children's Workshop and 4-H to name a few).

The Greenfield Sertoma club has been serving the residents of Hancock County since 1965. For more information contact Dave Berard, (317) 462-9681.
