

Gib Young-James Whitcomb Riley Breakfast Speaker

Gib Young will be the headline speaker at the annual James Whitcomb Riley Breakfast Saturday morning, October 8, 2011 and the Ameriana Parade Marshall at 11 a.m. Gib Young is a Teddy Roosevelt Impersonator and a contemporary of James W. Riley.

Gib is a born and bred Hoosier and a lifelong admirer of Theodore Roosevelt. He is a member of the Theodore Roosevelt Association. He has appeared from New York State to Shreveport to Marquette to Seattle as Teddy Roosevelt. He has also appeared at Mt Rushmore, Devil's Tower National Monument and Lake Erie's National Wildlife Reserve in the role of the 26th President.

Order your tickets now to hear "President Theodore Roosevelt" speak at the JW Riley Breakfast. The tickets for the 7:30 AM premier event of the festival are on sale at the Riley Festival Office, 312 E. Main Street, or can be reserved from the office by calling 462-2141.

The 2011 JW Riley Breakfast will be held in the American Legion Post at 275 Center Street. Breakfast lines open at 7:15 AM for the early risers and finishes in time for all to go downtown for the opening of the Festival.

For further information and tickets please call the Riley Office, 462-2141.